

Famous Virginian iMovie Assignment:

In the spirit of the Oscars approaching, Mrs. Bowman's fifth grade social studies class is going to have our very own film festival (Popcorn provided!!!)

Your task is to create a film that is Oscars-worthy to show at our opening night (or during class on March 2).

Your film will be about the life of one of the 20th century Virginians who we have been studying this unit (see complete list attached).

You will create a movie, using the iMovie app, informing the audience (your classmates) about your Virginian's life and contributions to Virginia's history.

You will have two days of research and planning for your iMovie, as well as two days to create your movie in the iPad lab. It is your responsibility to use this time wisely!!

List of Virginian's to choose from:

- Linwood Holton
- Maggie L. Walker
- Arthur Ashe
- Douglas Wilder
- George C. Marshall
- Woodrow Wilson
- Harry F. Byrd, Sr.
- Oliver Hill
- Ruby Bridges
- Thurgood Marshall
- Earl Warren

*Make sure you get your Virginian approved by me before you get started!!

The name of my Virginian is: _____.

Famous Virginian iMovie Rubric:

Teacher-Assessment (What I will be looking for):

Student completed and turned in detailed iMovie planning sheet	_____/5
iMovie included name of Virginian	_____/1
iMovie included Virginian's birthplace and date	_____/2
iMovie included at least two facts about Virginian's early life.	_____/2
iMovie included at least 3 contributions to history.	_____/3
iMovie included at least 4 pictures.	_____/4
iMovie was completed on time	_____/1
iMovie was presented to the class.	_____/1

Self-Assessment: (choose the number you think you deserve)

	1 (not really)	2 (for the most part)	3 For sure!
I used my time wisely and appropriately
I put forth my best effort

Total _____/100

Famous Virginian General Facts:

Virginian's Name:

Birthplace/date:

Early Life:

1.

2.

Contributions/Importance of person:

1.

2.

3.

Other interesting facts:

